ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, and having considered 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Ryan Woodbury, is hereby placed on probation on Count One of the Single-Count Information for a term of 3 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 5-02 as amended as follows: paragraph 2 of General Order 5-02 is amended to read "The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the Court or Probation Officer except as otherwise required by military orders"; and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
5. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs) that have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices include personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers.
6. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the defendant's site of employment, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.

USA vs. RYAN WOODBURYDocket No.: CR 14-0061 FFM

7. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet.

8. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.

9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's mental health treatment to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25, which is due immediately.

In addition, the Court orders the defendant to pay to the United States a fine in the amount of $2,250. A sum of $1,000 shall be paid immediately, and the balance shall be paid in the monthly installments of at least $300 during the term of probation. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Probation Office is directed to provide the defendant with a written statement that sets forth all the conditions to which the sentence is subject, and that is sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the defendant's conduct and as for such supervision as is required.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
